18 2.6 Defendant City of Seattle. Defendant City of Seattle (City) is a municipality
19 within the State of Washington and employed the police officers that responded to the 20 February 21, 2016 incident involving Che Andre Taylor. The civil rights violations
21 delineated herein were proximately caused by its customs, policies and usages. Here, the City 22 is liable for intentional torts or negligence under goes further than the theory of respondent
23 superior if the employee was acting in the scope and course of employment. The City of 24
25
26

1 Seattle's customs and officers giving conflicting commands, decedent attempting to comply
2 with the conflicting commands by putting his hands up in the air and then attempting to drop
3 them to the ground, officers shooting decedent thereafter within seconds after approaching
4 decedent meets the Monell claims as policy or custom of giving conflicting commands and 5 shooting and killing an individual within seconds is deficient, it caused great harm to the 6 Plaintiffs, and it could be viewed that the policy/custom amounted to deliberate indifference.
7 Whether the City had proper training, procedure, and policies in place for its officers on how
8 to handle similar situations prior to resorting to shooting and killing citizens, as Che Andre
9 Taylor, will be proven after discovery is concluded and at trial.

11 2.7 Defendant Michael Spaulding. At all times relevant, Michael Spaulding was 12 employed as law enforcement by the Seattle Police Department and was acting within the 13 course and scope of his employment with the City of Seattle and under color of law. All of 14 Michael Spaulding's acts alleged herein was taken for the benefit for the City of Seattle and 15 his marital community.
16

17 2.8 Defendant Scott Miller. At all times relevant, Scott Miller was employed as 18 law enforcement by the Seattle Police Department and was acting within the course and scope
19 of his employment with the City of Seattle and under color of law. All of Scott Miller's acts
20 alleged herein was taken for the benefit for the City of Seattle and his marital community.
21

22 2.9 Defendant Timothy Barnes. At all times relevant, Timothy Barnes was 23 employed as law enforcement by the Seattle Police Department and was acting within the 24 course and scope of his employment with the City of Seattle and under color of law. All of

3 as law enforcement by the Seattle Police Department and was acting within the course and
4 scope of his employment with the City of Seattle and under color of law. All of Audi
5 Acuesta's acts alleged herein was taken for the benefit for the City of Seattle and his marital 6 community.
7

8 2.11 Unknown Seattle Police Officer. At all times relevant, the unknown police
9 officers were employed as law enforcement by the Seattle Police Department and was acting
10 within the course and scope of his employment with the City of Seattle and under color of 11 law.
12

13 III. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14 3.1 Jurisdiction. Jurisdiction in this Court is based on the existence of a federal 15 question pursuant to 28 USC §1331 and 1343, in that Plaintiffs assert claims for deprivation
16 of civil rights under 42 USC §1983 for violation of the Fourth Amendments to the United 17 States Constitution.

18 3.2 Venue. Venue for this action is appropriate in this Court because the events
19 giving rise to the claims asserted herein occurred in the Seattle Division of this district and 20 because the plaintiffs and defendants reside in this district.
21

22 IV. FACTS

23 4.1 On February 21, 2016 at approximately 4:15 pm, Che Andre Taylor was shot
24 by multiple Seattle Police Officers. Che Andre Taylor was an African American male.

25 4.2 Che Andre Taylor died as a result of the multiple gunshot wounds that he 26

1 received from the February 21, 2016 shooting.

2 4.3 Prior to the shooting, Che Andre Taylor was standing in the doorframe of a
3 white motor vehicle talking to people inside the vehicle.

4 4.4 Officers Michael Spaulding and Scott Miller were observing Che Andre Taylor
5 in an undercover capacity prior to the shooting. Officers Spaulding and Miller were watching
6 Che Andre Taylor from an undercover vehicle.

7 4.5 Based upon their perceived observations, Officers Spaulding and Miller chose
8 to approach and attempt to arrest Che Andre Taylor.

9 4.6 Officers Spaulding and Miller chose to approach Che Andre Taylor with long
10 rifles because of the stopping power of these particular firearms.

11 4.7 Officers Spaulding and Miller were wearing black tactical jackets at the time
12 that they chose to approach and attempt to arrest Che Andre Taylor.

13 4.8 At the time that Officers Spaulding and Miller began to approach Che Andre
14 Taylor, a marked Seattle Police vehicle began to approach the scene.

15 4.9 Officers Barnes and Acuesta were in the marked Seattle Police vehicle that 16 was approaching the scene.

17 4.10 The marked Seattle Police vehicle that Officers Barnes and Acuesta were 18 present at the time, date, and location of the incident.

19 4.11 In the video, Officers Spaulding and Miller can be seen quickly approaching
20 the vehicle that Che Andre Taylor was standing in with their guns drawn.

21 4.12 In the audio recording, multiple police officers can be heard simultaneously
22 giving Che Andre Taylor, including Officer Barnes, Acuesta, Spaulding and Miller. The 23
24
25
26

1 commands given to Che Andre Taylor were not consistent.

2 4.13 Some of these police officers can be heard yelling at Che Andre Taylor to put
3 his hands up while other police officers can be heard yelling at Che Andre Taylor to get on 4 the ground, the commands given by the officers -Offices Spaulding, Miller, Barnes and 5 Acuesta- were inconsistent and incompatible commands that conflicted with the other
6 commands given by the other officers present, which created a chaotic and disorganized
7 environment for the Che Andre Taylor by these officers. These officers were shouting and 8 ordering the decedent conflicting orders which was confusing the decedent. The officers' 9 voices were captured in the audio and video of the incident as these officers' were present and 10 involved in creating this disorganized and dangerous situation. The officers, as trained policer
11 officers by the City of Seattle, have a duty that they owe to all citizens, including Che Andre
12 Taylor not to create a chaotic scene in which conflicting orders are given, confusing the 13 decedent, and eventually leading to him being shot multiple times and dying. All officers
14 own a duty to civilians, including Che Andre Taylor to serve and protect them and to give 15 orderly commands that can and should be followed, not commands that hat would endanger 16 the public in general. When the officers gave their instructions and gave verbal commands to 17 the decedent, which were conflicting and confusing orders, they breached their duty to him
18 and thereby created a dangerous situation that led to Che Andre Taylor being shot and killed.

19 4.14 The police officer commands to Che Andre Taylor were being yelled at Che
20 Andre Taylor from different directions with multiple differing commands. Plaintiffs believe it
21 was the City of Seattle's custom and practice that trained and reinforced the officers- Officer
22 Spaulding, Miller, Barnes, and Acuesta – to given conflicting and contrary commands to a 23
24
25
26

1 Che Andre Taylor, which led to him being shot multiple times and ultimately dying.

2 4.15 Che Andre Taylor can be seen on the video attempting to comply with the 3 simultaneous and conflicting and opposing commands of the police officers.

4 4.16 Che Andre Taylor first puts his hands in the air and then attempts to drop to the 5 ground as instructed by the police officers.

6 4.17 Che Andre Taylor was shot by Officers Spaulding and Miller within seconds
7 of their approach of Che Andre Taylor.

8 4.18 After shooting Che Andre Taylor, police officers rolled his body over and 9 handcuffed him.

10 4.19 Critical minutes lapsed between the time in which Che Andre Taylor was shot
11 and the time that police officers allowed medical emergency personnel to render aid.

12 4.20 Shortly after Che Andre Taylor was shot, Seattle Police Officers began to turn
13 their attention to the other individuals in the vehicle that Che Andre Taylor had been standing 14 by.

15 4.21 Seattle Police Officers commanded the remaining individuals in the car to get 16 out of it.

17 4.22 The passenger in the back seat of the vehicle that Che Andre Taylor was 18 standing by and had difficulty following the command given by the police officers. The 19 passenger in the back seat was a white female. First, the police officer instructed her to exit
20 the vehicle out of the back door that is on the driver side. Rather than going to the driver side 21 back door, she lunged toward the passenger side door. The backseat passenger also failed to 22 comply with the officer commands when she initially got out of the vehicle. Police officers
23
24
25
26

1 did not shoot her.

2 4.23 The driver of the white vehicle was a white male. Police officers paid little to 3 no attention to his actions or movements at the time that they approached Che Andre Taylor.

4 4.24 Che Andre Taylor was ultimately shot and killed while attempting to comply
5 with conflicting police officers' commands.

6 4.25 Che Andre Taylor was denied the ability to comply with the police officers'
7 commands as they were inconsistent to him.

8 4.26 As a result of the actions of the police officers in this incident, Che Andre
9 Taylor was denied due process of law.

13 V. CAUSES OF ACTION

14 5.1 First Cause of Action. By virtue of the facts set forth above, the defendants are 15 liable to all plaintiffs for damages for negligence. The claim for negligence arises out of the 16 duty owed to decedent Che Taylor by the city and by extension the police officers who shot
17 and killed him. The duty is breached when the officers chose to shoot and killed Che Taylor,
18 and but for the negligence or action of the officers and their employee the city, Che Taylor
19 would have been still alive. Thus, the elements of negligence are met. Specifically
20 and further, in Washington, the public duty doctrine defines under which a governmental 21 entity may owes a statutory or common law duty to particular member of the public, namely,
22 (i) legislative intent, (ii) failure to enforce, (iii) the rescue doctrine, or (iv) a special 23 relationship.
24
25
26

1 5.2 Second Cause of Action. By virtue of the facts set forth above, the defendants
 2 are liable to all plaintiffs for the tort of outrage. Devitta Briscoe as the sister and executor of 3 the estate of Che Andre Tylor claims outrage based the fact that Defendants officers Spalding
 4 and Miller shot decedent multiple times, he suffered before he died and several officers
 5 shouting inconsistent, confusing and conflicting orders before he was eventually killed.
 6 Defendants actions were not only reckless, but intentional, as they gave opposing commands
 7 that Che Andre Taylor could not comply with and then fired shots at him, knowing they could
 8 kill him thereby causing emotional distress to Che Andre Taylor. The decedent had suffered 9 injury and pain before he died as a result of bullets raining on him from many officers prior to 10 eventually pronounced dead.
 11

12 5.3 Third Cause of Action. By virtue of the facts set forth above, the defendants
 13 are liable to all plaintiffs for false arrest.
 14

15 5.4 Fourth Cause of Action. By virtue of the facts set forth above, the defendants
 16 are liable to all plaintiffs for unlawful seizure.

17 5.5 Sixth Cause of Action. Per RCW 49.60.030, the defendants are liable to the 18 plaintiffs for violation of the plaintiffs' civil rights to the right to be free from discrimination
 19 because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, honorably discharged veteran or military 20 status, sexual orientation, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability or the 21 use of a trained dog guide or service animal by a person with a disability is recognized as and 22 declared to be a civil rights.
 23

24 5.6 42.USC §1983. By virtue of the facts set forth above, all defendants are liable
 25 for compensatory and punitive damages for deprivation of civil rights of plaintiff Brenda 26

Taylor, which then passes to her estate, guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendments of the constitution of the United States and 42 USC §1983 to be free from their liberty interest in a familial relationship with her husband, Che Andre Taylor, without due process of law.

5.7 42.U.S.C §1983. By virtue of the facts set forth above, all defendants are liable for compensatory and punitive damages for deprivation of civil rights of Che Andre Taylor's children, guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendments of the constitution of the United States and 42 USC §1983 to be free from their liberty interest in a familial relationship with their father, Che Andre Taylor, without due process of law.

5.8 42.U.S.C §1983. By virtue of the facts set forth above, all defendants are liable for compensatory and punitive damages for deprivation of civil rights of plaintiff Joyce Dorsey, guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendments of the constitution of the United States and 42 USC §1983 to be free from their liberty interest in a familial relationship with her son, Che Andre Taylor, without due process of law.

5.9 42.U.S.C §1983. By virtue of the facts set forth above, all defendants are liable for compensatory and punitive damages for deprivation of civil rights of plaintiff Estate of Che Andre Taylor, guaranteed by the Fourteenth Amendments of the constitution of the United States and 42 USC §1983 to be free from their liberty interest in a familial relationship with their family member, Che Andre Taylor, without due process of law.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray for the following relief:

1. Compensatory damages and punitive damages in an amount to be proven at trial. Plaintiffs seek punitive damages against all defendants;
2. For reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and
3. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and equitable.
